3	IRT Enterprise Agreement 2026 As you probably know by now, the proposed agreement is going to be called the IRT Enterprise Agreement 2026. The proposed agreement would replace the current IRT Enterprise Agreement 2018, and is intended to cover the same group of employees. The term “Proposed Agreement” is being used because, at this stage, it is only a proposal. It does not become an agreement until a majority of employees who cast a valid vote agree to it, and it is then approved by the Fair Work Commission. Before you’re asked to vote, you will receive an information pack with the final version of the proposed agreement along with the supporting documents I mentioned just before, so that you have time to review the details. The vote is scheduled to open on 17 June 2026 and close on 22 June 2026. We’ll talk more about the voting process later in this presentation, and further details will also be shared closer to the voting period. If the proposed agreement is approved by a majority of employees, it will then go to the Fair Work Commission for approval. The Fair Work Commission will assess the agreement to ensure that employees are better off overall and has been agreed to in accordance with the law. If approved, the new agreement will come into effect 7 days after Fair Work Commission approval and will replace the current 2018 Agreement. The agreement has a nominal expiry date of 3 years after the day it commences, but like most enterprise agreements, it would continue to apply until it is formally replaced or terminated.
4	Where have we come from? As most of you know, we strived to get a new EA in place last year, but when it came time to vote in July 2025, the majority of you voted no. That result gave us an opportunity to step back and reflect on what else we can offer to make the EA more attractive to staff. Over the months that followed, we spent time understanding what matters most to you by gathering your feedback and bringing in an independent workforce sentiment specialist to challenge our thinking. The message was clear: pay is important to you. That feedback helped shape the proposed 2026 Enterprise Agreement – with a stronger focus on pay outcomes, and a number of other improvements.

5	So, where are we up to now? This slide gives an overview of the timeline and what happens next. We spent several months designing, modelling and testing the new offer. Following this, we held a number of negotiation meetings with your employee representatives and union delegates to finalise the proposed Agreement. The Access Period is the formal period before voting begins. During this time, you will have access to the final proposed agreement and supporting information, so you can read it, consider its contents, and ask any questions before deciding how to vote. We intend to start the access period on 9 June 2026, which means you should have all the relevant documentation by then, and you will have 7 full days to consider the information before voting commences. Voting will open on 17 June and close on 22 June 2026 and will be managed by an external provider called GoVote. During this time, eligible employees will be able to vote on the proposed agreement. If the majority of employees vote in favour of the agreement, the agreement is considered 'made'. IRT will then apply to the Fair Work Commission for approval within 14 days. From there, the Commission will review the Agreement. This process usually takes between 10 and 45 days, although the timing is ultimately managed by the Commission. We will do everything we reasonably can to support a smooth and timely approval process. If the agreement is approved, it will come into effect 7 days after the Fair Work Commission's approval. We will let you know when that happens and confirm the date the agreement will come into effect.
6	The EA – What's new? Before we step through the detail, there are a few important points to call out. Firstly, we are not proposing to remove any existing benefits from the 2018 Agreement. All claims from the unions have been considered, and where appropriate, adopted. The changes made to the proposed Agreement are a result of new entitlements introduced into the law and modern awards that would have applied to you, or as a result of negotiations with the unions. Our final proposal includes a suite of new provisions that we have set out in detail in the Summary of Changes document and other supporting material available on the EA negotiations hub. For today's purposes, we will go through some of the key changes. Our hope is that with a majority yes vote, we can start delivering all these benefits once approved by the Fair Work Commission.

7	New provisions One of the key improvements of the proposed agreement is the wage increase. You will see that Schedule B of the proposed agreement sets out an annual wage increase of 3% each year for 3 years. The table in Schedule B is intended to show you what your rate of pay will be if a 3% increase is applied each year. However, if the applicable award rate plus 1.5% is higher than the 3% increase, you will receive the higher rate. In practice, this means on each anniversary of the proposed agreement, either the 3% wage increase or an increase of 1.5% above the applicable award rate, (whichever is higher), will be applied to the rate you were earning immediately before that anniversary date. Accordingly, the table in Schedule B is indicative only and shows the minimum rates you will receive, based on the assumption that the annual increase applied is 3% each year.
8	New provisions All employees now have the right to disconnect under clause 21 of the proposed EA, which is included to match your entitlements under the Fair Work Act and modern award. The right to disconnect provision means that you have the right to refuse to monitor, read, or respond to contact, or attempted contact, from IRT or a third party outside of your working hours, unless the refusal is unreasonable. What is unreasonable? Well, this will depend on the reason for the contact, how the contact is made, the level of disruption, the level to which you are compensated, the nature of your role, and your personal circumstances.
9	New provisions Clause 21 of the proposed EA presents specific examples where IRT can contact you outside of your working hours, such as when you are on-call, where you are notified that you are required to attend or perform work or give other notice about the on-call, and where there is a roster change, shift offer or a recall to work.
10	New provisions Under clause 18.3, for new employees commencing part-time, or existing full-time or casual employees transferring to part-time, you will be given greater certainty on the days of the week you are required to work. At the start of employment, you and IRT will agree, in writing, to the guaranteed minimum number of hours to work each week, the days of the week you will work, and the start and finish times of each of those days. This matches your entitlement under the Award. Any variation to these hours, whether you are a new part-time employee or an ongoing part-time employee, will need to be agreed to in writing, in accordance with the proposed agreement.

Slide	Messaging
11	New provisions – part-time hours For home care employees, part-time arrangements work a little differently. Home care employees will agree, in writing, to the guaranteed minimum number of hours to work each week, the days of the week they'll work, and the periods in each of those days when they are available to perform those hours. This is to reflect the nature of home care work, where shifts vary based on customer availability and cannot be predicted in advance.
12	New provisions – Allowances The rates of your allowances are outlined in Schedule B, Table 2. As you will see in the proposed agreement, the rate of your allowance will be updated throughout the life of the proposed Agreement, in line with the applicable modern award. This means it can change during the life of the Agreement to ensure you obtain your minimum entitlement under the award.
13	Other new provisions There are a range of other new provisions in the proposed agreement. Under clause 27, we've introduced 2 days' paid appreciation leave each year for all employees except for casuals. This is in addition to your annual leave, and a gesture of thanks for your hard work. This replaces the previous 1-day additional birthday leave. You will also be entitled to three days of paid community service leave under clause 32. Under the National Employment Standards, this is unpaid leave. You will see under clause 33 of the proposed agreement that we have increased the entitlement to paid parental leave to 14 weeks paid maternity leave, 14 weeks paid primary carer leave for adoption or surrogacy and 4 weeks paid bonding leave, which is also known as partner leave. Partner leave is for when you're the child's father, the partner of the birth parent, or the partner of the initial primary carer of an adopted or surrogate child. Partners also include ex-partners, whether or not they are the parent of the child.
14	Other new provisions While not a new provision, we are changing all references of Care Managers to Residential Managers, and Lifestyle to Wellbeing. This is to align with the recently strengthened Aged Care Quality Standards. In the proposed agreement, we are also introducing a new classification structure for ACE and Home Care employees between Levels 1 and 2. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The first change is the amendment to the qualification requirements for Level 1 and Level 2 ACE Direct Care and Home Care employees. The threshold is now

Slide	Messaging
	determined by 3 calendar months, rather than performing exactly 500 hours. So, if an ACE Direct Care employee has no qualification and less than 3 months' experience, they will be classified as a Level 1 employee. Once they have completed 3 months' experience, they will then become a Level 2 employee. 2. The second change is that we are introducing a new classification, called Level 1B Introductory and Qualified. This new 1B classification is designed to cover employees who have a Certificate III qualification in a relevant field but have less than 3 months' experience. Once this employee completes 3 months' experience conducting Level 1 tasks, they will be moved to a Level 3 classification. We have also updated the bed number ranges for Senior Care Coordinators and Residential Managers to ensure it is properly covered. Under clause 22.2, we have limited when a roster may be altered at any time to when another employee is absent from duty on account of illness or in an emergency, so as to enable the service of IRT to continue. In the current agreement, the scope is wider to permit other reasons to enable the service to continue.
15	Other new provisions Under clause 28.1, registered nurses will benefit from an increased in-charge allowance rate to better recognise the additional competencies and responsibilities. You will see at clause 30.7(c)(iii) that you are only required to provide a medical certificate or statutory declaration for absences of personal/carer's leave of greater than 2 days, which is increased from one day under current practices. We are committed to providing support to those of you who experience domestic violence. To match the improvements that have recently been made to the Fair Work Act, you will see at clause 52 that you will be entitled to paid family and domestic violence leave. We have doubled this entitlement to 20 days instead of 10 days for full-time and part-time employees. While the Agreement currently states that casual employees are not entitled to paid leave, this was an oversight by us. Under the National Employment Standards (NES), casual employees would also be entitled to 10 paid days' leave in specific circumstances. The proposed Agreement contains a NES precedence clause at clause 11, which essentially states that where there is any inconsistency between the agreement and NES, the NES entitlement will apply to the extent of that inconsistency. At clause 18.4, we have redefined casual employees to be the same as the Fair Work Act. A person is a casual employee if there is no firm advance commitment to continuing and indefinite work, and they are entitled to a casual loading or specific pay rate under a contract or agreement. Casual conversion rights are in accordance with the Fair Work Act.

16	Other new provisions You will also benefit from increased natural disaster leave at clause 38 from one to two days per year. In line with the changes under the law, you will find at clause 31 that compassionate leave also applies to those who experience the sadness of miscarriage. Clause 23.2 to 23.4 provides clear guidance on accommodating lactation breaks fairly and consistently. We also removed certain allowances that no longer apply to employees. That includes sleepovers, service allowance and live-in house-keeper work.
17	Other new provisions We have included a new provision at clause 54 relating to workplace delegates' rights to match the new minimum standard for workplace delegates under the modern awards. A workplace delegate is a person who is elected or appointed, in accordance with the rules of the union, to be a delegate or representative, (however described), for members of the organisation. They may also be called a union representative. Delegates have the right to represent the industrial interests of union members and potential members. Clause 54 provides certain entitlements to delegates, such as reasonable communication with union members and potential members about their workplace interests, and access to the workplace or workplace facilities. Under the 2018 agreement, overtime on Saturdays was at 150% of your rates for the first 2 hours, then 200% thereafter. You will see at clause 24.2 and 24.3, we have now changed this to a fixed 200% rate, (or 250% if you're a casual Aged Care employee), for overtime worked on Saturdays. You will find at clause 41.4. that the ability to form a consultative team has also been expanded to other facilities with more than 40 employees or 60 or more beds. Clause 41.3 sets out the additional consultation procedure which IRT will go through when it proposes to introduce a change to the rosters or your ordinary hours of work.
18	Other new provisions Under clause 20.1(d), we have also amended the ordinary hours for each shift to be 8 hours as opposed to 10 hours, (as it is in the current enterprise agreement). As previously mentioned, there are several more changes in the proposed EA, but these are the main highlights. We strongly encourage you to review the proposed IRT Enterprise Agreement 2026, the Summary of Changes document and other supporting materials, and reach out if you have any questions.

19	Applicable Awards All of you, if not for the enterprise agreement, would have been covered by one of these four awards. The fourth award only applies to our home care employees. Since the 2018 Enterprise Agreement came into effect, there have been a number of changes to these modern awards. We will go through each of the first three Awards to demonstrate where we have either changed or omitted the new entitlements, and some key introductions for your attention. The next slides are just the prominent changes. All other changes are outlined in the Award Comparison table documents. Any new award provisions not mentioned in those documents are substantially the same as the proposed EA. You're strongly encouraged to review the Award Comparison table relevant to your role to understand what changes were made to the Award and how these have been changed in the proposed Agreement.
20	Aged Care Award 2010 This section is relevant to employees whose roles fall under the Aged Care Award 2010, including Aged Care, Catering, Maintenance, Administrative and Support employees, as well as cooking, gardener and painter apprentices. There are a few areas where the proposed EA is different to the award. <ul data-bbox="328 1164 1465 2045" style="list-style-type: none"> <li data-bbox="328 1164 1465 1469">• Payment on termination of employment: The Award requires that all monies owed to you are to be paid no later than the last day of your formal notice upon your termination, however that occurs, or must be paid to you within 7 days of your last day of employment in all other circumstances. In the proposed Agreement, these payments would instead be paid to you on the same day as your last day of employment, unless you have not provided IRT written notice, which would then be the next scheduled pay day. This could be within 7 days, or it could be more than 7 days, as it depends when your last day occurs. <li data-bbox="328 1512 1465 1816">• Minimum engagement for broken shifts: The Award provides that part-time or casuals who work broken shifts must receive a minimum payment of 2 hours for each engagement. We only have a similar clause like this for home care employees under the proposed Agreement, but the proposed Agreement provides a generic minimum entitlement to all part-time and casuals of a minimum 2 hours for each shift. In practice, this means that non-Home Care employees working a broken shift under the Proposed Agreement may not have a guaranteed two-hour minimum for each portion of the shift, whereas under the Award they would. <li data-bbox="328 1859 1465 2045">• Right to disconnect: Like I said earlier, you all have the right to disconnect, which has been introduced into the Modern Awards. The proposed Agreement differs from the Modern Award by including an additional two scenarios when IRT can reasonably contact you, such as when you are on-call and being paid an on-call allowance, to notify you to attend or perform work, or give other notice about the

Slide	Messaging
	on-call. This is mentioned in the other Modern Awards, just not the Aged Care Award.
21	Aged Care Award 2010 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Overtime triggers: The Award has changed the manner in which overtime applies. These are applied differently under the proposed Agreement at clause 24. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ For full time employees, under the Award, overtime kicks in after working more than your daily rostered ordinary hours. Under the proposed EA, overtime applies if you work beyond your ordinary hours, or over a 12-hour span in a broken shift. ○ For part-time employees, the Award grants overtime if you work more than 38 hours per week, 76 hours per fortnight, 10 hours in a day, or in excess of the rostered hours on any day, (unless an agreement has been entered into). The proposed EA adds overtime if you work more than 152 hours over 4 weeks, more than 12 hours in a broken shift, or more than 10 shifts per fortnight. ○ For casual employees, the Award provides overtime only after 38 hours per week, 76 per fortnight or more than 10 hours in a day. The proposed EA adds overtime if you work beyond 10 shifts per fortnight, or over a 12-hour span in a broken shift. • Rest period after overtime: The Award requires a 10-hour break between shifts. If not observed, and you are required to keep working, you'll be paid 200% until released from duty. The proposed EA allows for overtime rates if the break between shifts is under 10 or 8 hours, (depending on what you agreed to), with rates at either 150% for the first 2 hours, then 200%, or straight 200% on weekends, or 250% on a public holiday. • Redundancy: The Award includes entitlements such as notice periods for lower-paid roles due to redundancy, (or equivalent payment in lieu of notice), entitlements available if you give notice of termination during the minimum period of notice, and job search entitlements. The proposed agreement doesn't include any of these entitlements, but it does offer more generous provisions, including higher redundancy pay.
22	Aged Care Award 2010 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Workplace Delegates Right: the proposed Agreement slightly updates the Award by requiring delegates to share training knowledge in accordance with the policy.

Slide	Messaging
	The significant changes under the Award, in which we have amended or omitted in the proposed EA, are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Public Holidays on RDOs: The Award introduces that if your RDO falls on a public holiday, you will be paid your ordinary pay for that day. However, this does not apply if you are a Monday to Friday worker and the public holiday falls on the weekend. This is not provided for in the proposed agreement specifically, but instead, the proposed agreement provides that an ADO will not be rostered on a public holiday. In practice, this means your ADO will be scheduled on a different day, and you will still receive your public holiday entitlement separately. Overtime for casual employees at Level 4 and 5: Level 4 and Level 5 casual employees are not entitled to casual overtime rates under the Award. This is not specified under the proposed EA, but this is not relevant as we do not engage casual nursing staff at Level 4 and Level 5, or any casual employees in the nursing team in general. Workplace Delegates Right: the proposed Agreement slightly updates the Award by requiring delegates to share training knowledge in accordance with the policy.
24	Health Professionals Support and Services Award 2020 This section is relevant to employees whose roles fall under the HPSS Award 2020, including social welfare officers, and junior administrative and support employees aged 20 years or less. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The changes for the rest period after overtime are the same as the Nurses Award, where under the Award, it is 200%, or 250% if you're a casual, but the proposed EA is at overtime rates. This could be 150% for the first 2 hours if you have not performed overtime rates prior to this clause being triggered, and work on Monday to Friday could be entitled to 250% if this work occurs on a public holiday. The proposed Agreement does not provide for casual rates other than casual aged care employees. This is because IRT does not engage casual social welfare officers or junior administrative and support employees. Superannuation: The new superannuation clauses require that IRT checks with the ATO if you have a stapled superannuation fund if you have not nominated anything. This should not apply to you, as you are not new employees. But the more relevant aspect is that, under the Award, the salary sacrifice request must be in writing and this is not provided for under the Agreement. Workplace Delegates Right: the proposed Agreement slightly updates the Award by requiring delegates to share training knowledge in accordance with the policy. You're strongly encouraged to review the Award Comparison table relevant to your role to understand what changes were made to the Award and how these have been changed in the proposed Agreement.

25	Added benefits – employee package In addition to the proposed EA, IRT offers a comprehensive employment package. Some of these benefits include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • generous long service leave provisions; • Fitness passport; • access to professional development; • a rewards program; • career pathways and progression; • health and wellbeing support via TELUS Health, and • salary packaging.
26	Additional benefits – Long Service Leave The proposed agreement intends to provide more beneficial terms for your long service leave. In particular, after 10 years, EA employees will accrue Long Service Leave at 2.5 times the rate prescribed in state Long Service Leave Acts.
27	What happens next? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. IRT intends to commence the 'Access Period' on Tuesday 9 June 2026. 30	Voting YES or NO You are voting on the proposed agreement as a whole. You cannot vote yes to some parts and no to others. Voting YES means you support the proposed agreement. If a majority of employees vote yes, the agreement will be submitted to the Fair Work Commission for approval. Once approved, employees will receive the pay increase this year and the other new benefits included in the agreement. Voting NO means you do not support the proposed agreement. If a majority of employees vote no, the agreement will not be approved. This means no entitlements will be delivered this year and we will return to the negotiation table. Choosing not to vote at all means you're leaving the outcome in the hands of others.
